ABOUT ME

PASSIONATE AND PROFESSIONAL FULL STACK WEB DEVELOPER.

Extremely motivated and excited about programming, I would welcome the opportunity to bring my strong problem solving skill, creativity and coding passion to your growing team, or personal project, I am confident to deliver world top websites and applications.

I am capable to deliver my own design to reflect my client's perspective in an artistic, modern way, then convert that design to a clean efficient code using the latest up to date technologies (React,Node,Tailwind....) so it can beautifully come to life with tons of animations and user experience integration.
